Marseille

Arrival 08:00 / Departure 17:00

Also known as the Phocaean city, Marseille is the sunniest city in France. You will be enchanted by its ravines where you can take a dip, its historical and cultural museums and restaurants serving cuisine from all around the world.
And whatever you do, don't leave before enjoying a stroll along the "Cours Julien", the road of little shops with thousands of shopping opportunities. The port of Marseille may be a typical tourist destination, but it's worth a visit in any case for the ferry that departs from the Town Hall and the ancient church standing on the site of a former Knights Templar building.

Don't miss:
- Aix-en-Provence
- Avignon, the papal city
- Explore Marseille by bike

DAY 8 - Thursday 07 May 2026

Heraklion/Crete

Arrival 09:00 / Departure 19:00

The stop at Heraklion starts with a visit to the port of Crete. Situated in the centre of the island, this former British watchtower has a long history.
You cannot land on the island that gave birth to the legend of the Minotaur without visiting the ancient Palace of Knossos. Its ancient Minoan ruins and its maze of corridors and rooms evoke the famous Greek myth of the labyrinth. Equally impressive is the island fortress of Spinalonga, which is well worth a visit. Heraklion embodies the charm of an era both ancient and medieval.

Not to be missed:
• Discover the Palace of Knossos

We inform you that, starting July 21, 2025, the Greek authorities have introduced a new tax, similar to those already applied in hotels and other accommodation categories. Costa is solely responsible for collecting the amounts and transferring the funds to the local authorities.
This charge will appear on your on-board account by the end of your cruise. In the port of Crete, the tax applies to all guests—including minors—who go ashore, whether through a Costa-organized excursion or independently. The cost per person (not subject to VAT) is as follows:

• €5 during the period from July 21 to September 30
• €3 during the periods from October 1 to October 31 and April 1 to May 31
• €1 during the periods from October 1 to October 31 and April 1 to May 31

DAY 9 - Friday 08 May 2026

Piraeus/Athens

Day of disembarkation, Arrival 07:00

Piraeus is the port of Athens, the largest in Europe, allowing you to visit the city, a place of dreams. A place of emigration, it has inspired numerous songs. Most ships will be making a stop in Athens before resuming the Mediterranean route or returning to the Atlantic.
Take the time to visit the Acropolis and maybe the museum located at its base. Before flying out, enjoy the spectacle of a sunset at Capo Sunio. Try not to visit the city when it's too hot in summer, much of the population moves out of town.
Not to be missed:
• The mythical Parthenon
• The Ancient Agora
• The Olympic Stadium
